Bug summary:

wrong banner color when adding itunes podcast to subscriptions (red instead of blue)

Observed Behavior (a description of what happened with the app):

After I add a podcast to my subscriptions I press "back" until my subscriptions page is reached. Once I reach this page, the banner is a red color.

Expected Behavior (a description of what you expected to happen):

After I add a podcast to my subscriptions I press "back" until my subscriptions page is reached. Once I reach this page, the banner should be a blue color.

Steps to Reproduce (the steps to reproduce the problem):

1. click subscriptions

2. click add podcast

3. click search itunes

4. type tech

5. click on WSJ Tech News Briefing

6. click subscribe

7. 4x click back button
